

CHALLENGING ANTISEMITISM WITH COMMUNAL SOLIDARITY

SUNDAY MARCH 21, 3:00-4:30pm
Kehilla Community Synagogue's Middle East Peace Committee invites you to a virtual panel discussion on Creating Communal Solidarity as we Challenge the Rise in Antisemitism.
Moderated by Rabbi David Cooper.

- Antisemitism is real. We must confront it. How?
- False accusations of Antisemitism are also real. How shall we confront them?
- Both of these are serious obstacles for people in the Jewish community and for those organizing against the Israeli occupation and its oppression of Palestinians.
- What can inter-communal solidarity/cooperation do to meet these challenges?

Register here for Zoom Webinar:

https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZYkc-qprDgiEt270DB_2DjWH6b0UwBqep18

Liz Jackson, an active Kehilla member, is a founding attorney of Palestine Legal. She focuses on supporting activists organizing for Palestinian freedom and related justice movements. She documents the chilling effects of repression campaigns and creates ways for lawyers to strengthen movements for liberation.

Binya Kóatz, an active Kehilla member, is a transgirl Jewish organizer in Huchian/Oakland. Coming from a lineage of Sefardi and Ashkenazi immigrant freedom-fighters, she's committed to handing a better and queerer world to her children. She organizes with IfNotNow, Never Again Action, and in diasporic cultural spaces.

Penny Rosenwasser, an active Kehilla member, is a life-long justice activist and author of Hope into Practice, Jewish women choosing justice despite our fears. She co-teaches Anti-Semitism/Anti-Arabism at City College of San Francisco and is a founding board member of Jewish Voice for Peace.

Professor Rabab Ibrahim Abdulhadi is Director and Senior Scholar of AMED-Arab and Muslim Ethnicities and Diaspora Studies at San Francisco State University. She is committed to justice centered scholarship and pedagogy and has authored numerous articles and co-founded the Islamophobia Studies Journal.