(5) Your threshing will continue through the grape-harvest, and your grape-harvest will continue to your sowing; you will eat your fill of bread and dwell in safety in your land. (6) you will have peace in the land, and you will lie down without fear of anyone; the land will have respite from vicious beasts, and no sword will cross your land. (12) I will walk among you: I will be for you Elohim, and you will be for Me a people. (13) I יהוה am your God who brought you out from the land of Mitzrayim, from being their slaves, Who broke the bars of your yoke and raised you up.

(14) But if you don't hear Me and do not keep all these mitzvot, (15) and if you reject My laws and your souls cast aside My justice, so that you do not do all My mitzvot and you break My covenant, (16) This is what will happen to you: misery will be upon you—consumption and fever, which cause the eyes to pine and the body to languish; you will sow your seed to no purpose, for those who mean you harm shall eat it. (17) I will set My face against you....

(34) Then the land will receive its shabbat - all the days that it is deserted and you are in the land of those who harm you; then the land will rest and receive its shabbat. (35) All the days that it is deserted, it will receive the rest
